Offenses charged:

1. Felon in Possession of a Firearm
2. Distribution of Fentanyl

Date of Detention Hearing: July 28, 2021.

The Court, having conducted a second detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and 01 the community.

02 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

03 1. Defendant has been charged with a drug offense, the maximum penalty of which 04 is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to 05 both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

06 2. Defendant's criminal record includes two separate convictions for robbery and 07 two arrests involving firearm possession while he was under supervision for the prior robbery
08 convictions. In one instance, the Defendant eluded law enforcement by driving over a 09 roundabout and running a stop sign, then fleeing on foot. Defendant's criminal history also 10 reflects multiple failures to appear including a failure to report for supervision. Defendant 11 poses a risk of danger to the community based upon his serious criminal history involving 12 violence and multiple instances of gun possession, the fact that his criminal conduct escalated
13 over a very short period of time, and the nature of the current allegations, involving firearms
14 and distribution of fentanyl. Defendant poses a risk of flight because of his multiple prior 15 failures to appear and violations of a prior term of supervision with new criminal conduct.

16 3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no
17 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant 18 as required and the safety of the community.

19 It is therefore ORDERED:

- 20 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney 21 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from

02 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 03 counsel;

04 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person 05 in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the 06 defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 07 with a court proceeding; and

08 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
09 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services
